Review Board Hears Testimony Of Three Suspended Firemen

The Daly City board of review this week heard testimony of three of four firemen suspended April 8 after they were accused of encouraging two friends to burn a warehouse in order to get more firemen on the roster.

Asking for a review of the decision on their firing are Harvey Cross, Robert Malcolm and James Dresser.

George Bullwinkle, the fourth fireman, was in a probationary period at the time of the fire, having served less than six months, and is not entitled to any review under the city ordinances.

John J. Grizzell and Richard G. Hamilton, two non-employees on the premises of Firehouse No. 2 on the evening of April 6, testified to both drinking on the premises and discussions to the effect that a fire would be set at the Lagomarsino warehouse at Washington and Dunk streets.

They also testified that one of the firemen was in the presence of Grizzell when a gallon of gasoline was dumped under the warehouse. The city also produced police lieutenant David Hansen and inspector James Bergstrom, who were present in the general area of the warehouse at the time for other reasons and came upon Hamilton and apprehended Grizzell fleeing from the scene. At the time Grizzell and Hamilton were taken into custody, the fire had not occurred. The building was checked. Police officers did determine that gasoline was dumped on the ground of the warehouse. A half hour after the two men were taken into custody, a fire broke out.

The city also collected testimony of police captain Edward Beecher and fire chief Elmer

JESD Trustees Forced To Reduce Bond Sales

The Jefferson Elementary School District trustees voted at their meeting Monday night, September 17, to reduce the amount of bonds to be sold by the district from $415,000 to $325,000.

The action came as the result of a reduction in the assessed valuation of the district. The new assessed figure lowered the district's amount of eligibility for the sale of bonds. The state demands that the amount of bonds sold be contingent upon the assessed valuation.

In other business, the trustees and audience heard a report from Superintendent Richard Foster on the enrollment covering the first week of school.

Foster reported that there were a total of 9,223 students registered during the first week, taught by a staff of 322 teachers.

The board also accepted a gift of $25 from the Christopher Columbus PTA to be used for the purchase of children's magazine for the school library.

Foster To Speak At Administrator Workshop Oct. 13

Jefferson Elementary District Superintendent Richard Foster will be one of the main speakers at the San Mateo County Elementary Administrators' Association workshop on Saturday, October 13, at the CTA building in Burlingame.

Foster will speak at 11 a. m. on "Giving Direction to Lay Groups."

Dr. Walter McHugh of Alameda State College will be the speaker at the luncheon to be held at King's Bowl immediately following the workshop. His topic will be "Promising Controversies."

County Organization Committee To Recommend Unified District

The San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization has chosen Daly City as its first stop for its meetings on the controversial subject of unification of school districts.

The committee, along with the trustees of the Jefferson Union High School Districts, and the Jefferson Bayshore, Laguna Salada and Brisbane Elementary School Districts, will meet next Wednesday, September 2, at 8 p. m. in the Westmoor High School library.

The recommendation of the county committee, which has been working on the mandated State Legislature reorganization plan for more than a year, will be the one high school district and four elementary districts to unite into one unified district.

The public is cordially invited to the meeting, but there will be no audience participation for the first two meetings. The county committee must hold a minimum of three meetings, of which one must be a public hearing.

The principal outcome of the meeting will be the county committee's recommendation and their presentation of the facts and figures as to why they are making the recommendation for unification.

Robert Smythe, a member of the county committee, told the Jefferson High School District board of trustees last Tuesday that the committee must submit to the State Board of Education a plan for the reorganization of the school district of the county by Sept. 15, 1963.

The Daly City districts have been the first chosen to be acted upon. South San Francisco, which is already unified, will not be touched by the committee.

The edict passed by the California State Legislature in 1959 states that "each county must submit a plan to the State Board of Education that shall provide an educational program which includes kindergarten through senior high schools."

The unification of all school districts is the ultimate goal of the state program.

If the county committee should decide to deviate from the state's goal of unification,

Compromise Flood Control Plan Started

A compromise flood control program for north San Mateo County, has been brought out by County Manager E. R. Stallings, in light of opposition to the present plan by the cities of Daly City, Pacifica, San Bruno and Colma.

Big objection of the cities was they would not receive equal benefits for the money they would have to dole out for the $2,700,000 project as would South San Francisco.

North County supervisor James Fitzgerald said the compromise plan is to consult U.S. engineers in the building of silting basins and channels and other flood control work—to eliminate the cost of capital improvements with county general fund money.

If the cities would then consent to a district being formed they would have to pay only the cost of maintenance for the district—a very small amount, Fitzgerald said.

Taxing the entire county for flood control in the North County would be unfair, he stated.

The county is very interested in pursuing a zone pattern," he said.

South San Francisco has paid out an average of $50,000 per year for removal of silt caused by storm damage and flooding. The three most recent floods occurred during 1952, 1955 and 1958. All caused heavy damage, disrupted communications, halted work, and in 1958 caused loss of life.

Prior to settlement of the South San Francisco area, Colma Creek discharged into a swamp tidal marsh which extended from San Francisco Bay to about a location of Magnolia avenue in South San Francisco.

As it meandered across this flood plain, it split into many

Archbishop To Bless New Holy Angels' Church

Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken will make the first official visit to Colma since taking office when he presides at the dedication of the new Holy Angels' Church on Sunday, September 23, at 12:15 p. m.

The new Holy Angels' Church, replacing the historical old church on San Pedro Road, was 14 months in the building. Architect for the 1,000-seat Catholic church is John Michael Lee.

The Archbishop will bless the empty church and then open the doors to the public prior to the mass.

North San Mateo County residents of all ages and occupations have joined forces to staff the county's K. O. Polio stations this Sunday, September 23, when campaign leaders intend to immunize local residents with the advanced Sabin oral polio vaccine drops.

Vaccine stations will be open from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m. on K. O. Polio on Sunday, September 23. In those hours, each station will immunize from 5,000 to 15,000 persons.

The total K. O. Polio campaign calls for every person over three months of age to take the Sabin polio drops on a cube of sugar. The cost of the Sabin vaccine is just 25 cents to those who can afford a quarter, or free to those who cannot.

Medical officials say polio can be eliminated if EVERYONE takes the Sabin drops.

The Mercy Ambulance Company, 808 Higate drive, Daly City, will provide a convalescent car for people unable to get transportation to and from the K. O. Polio vaccine stations Sunday.

The Mercy Ambulances will also be used in the transportation of the vaccine to the stations.

Persons in the Daly City and Pacifica areas needing transportation to the K. O. Polio centers, may call Mercy Ambulance, PL 6-7455, for a free ride.

They urge even those persons who have already taken Salk polio shots to get the superior Sabin drops. They explain that Sabin vaccine provides permanent immunity, need no boosters and prevents those taking it from carrying the disease to others.

North County K. O. Polio stations are at:

N. Lipman School, 1 Solano street, Brisbane; Fernando Rivera School, 101 Lake Merced boulevard, Daly City, and Westmoor High School, 131 Westmoor avenue, Daly City.

South San Francisco High School, 400 B street, South San Francisco; El Camino High School, 1320 Mission road, South San Francisco; Parkway School, 825 Parkway, South San Francisco, and El Rancho School, 758 Del Monte drive, South San Francisco.

Bayshore School, 155 Oriente, San Francisco; Colma Upper School, 601 Market street, Colma, and Benjamin Franklin School, 700 Stewart avenue, Colma.

Council Holds Brief Meeting

The Daly City council last Tuesday breezed through a brief agenda in a record-breaking time of 25 minutes, due to the lack of controversial items.

A. J. Shooter, Inc., was the low bidder for improvements to Westmoor Park. Awarding of contract was held over.

The council adopted a resolution declaring the intention of the city to vacate Ventura way as a street right-of-way because of the steepness of the area.

City engineer William Chapman said that scenic view should remain where it is because there is the possibility of its extension in the proposed realignment of Crocker avenue.

Mayor Verducci indicated willingness of the council to go along with the recommendation of the technical staff after a meeting with Andrew Baffico, representing Golden Gate Builders, in an effort to reach an amiable agreement to provide water service to the newly-constructed apartments at 88th and Edgeworth streets.

Baffico asked that something be done to supply water to these apartments, which will be ready for occupancy within a day. He suggested the possible formation of a special water assessment district.

City attorney Paul Hupf reported that the city has received the document from Henry Doelger Builder, Inc., indicating the proposed alignment easement for access to the Daly City water plant property adjacent to Fairlawn court. The matter will be ready for final action at the next meeting.

Polio Vaccine Stations Listed

Everyone should take the Sabin oral vaccine on September 23, November 4 and December 9 — from three months old infants to our eldest citizens, according to Dr. Robert Gobard of Daly City, KO Polio publicity director for the San Mateo County Medical Society.

Sabin oral vaccine gives lasting protection against all three types of paralytic polio.

Get your oral vaccine in Daly City at the Fernando Rivera School, 101 Lake Merced boulevard, and Westmoor High School, 131 Westmoor avenue.

Other locations for receiving the vaccine are:

Pacifica—Linda Mar School, Rosita and Adobe, and Oceana High School.

Daly City Friends Of Library To Hold Meetings

Book review fans will be pleased to note that the Daly City Friends of the Library and the YWCA will resume their regular monthly reviews on Thursday, September 27, at 10 a.m. at the Westlake Bowl. Samuel Chandler, local librarian will again begin the series. The title he has chosen for his talk is "Let's Talk About Beauty"—a subject he intends to enlarge upon with illustrations drawn from various types of literature. Last year Chandler's very provocative talk which he called "Moods of Literature" was received with a great deal of interest by his audience.

Times readers who are followers of Chandler's regular column "Something for Everyone" and familiar with his penetrating and perceptive comment will look forward particularly to his appearance.

The Westlake Bowl is again extending the gracious courtesies of free nursery service to mothers of young children and a coffee hour preceding the book reviews. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Institute Of Music Features Weekly Courses In The Arts

A new kind of introduction to school will be offered this month in a creative arts kindergarten, featuring weekly courses designed to teach youngsters the joys of music, movement and art.

Training will be given in singing, rhythmic movement, an introduction to a variety of musical instruments, and work with art materials ranging from clay and paint through paper, wire and string. Much of the youngsters' activity will be carried on in games and story-telling.

Mrs. Martha Nastich, a former San Francisco school teacher trained at the University of California and the California School of Fine Arts, will be the course director.

Ten weekly two-hour sessions are planned for the course, with each class limited to 12 children, ages five and six. Full information is available on the program from Mrs. Grace Carter, Administrative Secretary, California Institute of Music, 2125 Junipero Serra boulevard, Daly City.

I call upon all our citizens to join in effective programs to promote safety in the control of fire; and I urge all of the people of the City of Daly City to participate actively in observing Fire Prevention Week, not only by cooperating with the observance thereof by our local Chamber of Commerce and our City, County and State Governments, but also by reminding themselves of the basic need of the contribution of each of our citizens to this program by continued cooperation with our own fire department and by continued observance of individual fire prevention fundamentals so that by our combined efforts we may effectively reduce the loss of life and property resulting from fires.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Daly City to be affixed this 17th day of September, 1962.

SSF VFW Aux. Plan Membership Drive

Commander Anthony Dias, and President Mrs. Albert Fawcett, jointly announce the opening of a membership drive, for post and auxiliary which will continue through November of this year, for South San Francisco Post and Auxiliary No. 4103, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

The objects of this well known organization are fraternal, patriotic, historical and educational, to assist the Veterans and their families when ever possible, whether in the home, school or hospitals. Post membership is open to all men, who have seen service overseas, during time of conflict, holding an honorable discharge.

Eligibility for the ladies auxiliary include women not less than sixteen years of age, who are citizens of the United States, or who may become citizens of the United States. Mother's, sisters, wives, widows, half sisters, daughters, and foster daughters of deceased, or honorably discharged officers, and enlisted men who have served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard of the United States, entitling them to the award of a campaign badge and as specified by rules governing eligibility to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. Also eligible are foster mothers and foster sisters if they were in that status before the service was rendered.

Female members of the Armed Forces of the United States of America who have had foreign service in time of war or during a campaign or expedition for which service a campaign badge has been authorized and who are in possession of or entitled to an honorable discharge.

Wives of veterans who were married in foreign countries during the period of campaign medal service in which the veteran served outside the continental limits of the US and wives of foreign birth who came to the United States under the War Brides Act and ultimately married eligible veterans. All whom must have declared their intention to become citizens of the US, provided however, that unless such members secure their final citizenship within a period of three years after being admitted to membership, they shall automatically be dropped from membership. Gold Star wives and Mothers are especially welcomed!

Auxiliary president, Mrs. Albert Fawcett, herself the mother of three married daughters, has suggested the Ladies Auxiliary meet on a Sunday afternoon, and a trial meeting will be held, Sunday, September 30 at 1:30 p.m. in "Veterans Hall," 312 Maple St. in South San Francisco. Hall is directly across from the South San Francisco Police Department with plenty of parking space. Knowing how difficult it is for mothers, as well as mothers with school age children to attend a meeting at night, President Fawcett is sure mothers will welcome a get together on a Sunday afternoon.

Polio Vaccine

El Rancho School, 753 Del Monte drive.

Only Sabin oral vaccine destroys polio virus, the kind which can make you a "carrier" of polio — endangering others. Sabin vaccine is absolutely safe. It is approved by the U.S. Department of Health. Already taken successfully by 283,000 people throughout the world.

You should take Sabin oral vaccine even though you have had Salk polio shots—for complete protection and to protect others.

The cost of your Sabin oral vaccine is a nominal charge of 25 cents per dose. If you can't pay this amount, the vaccine will be given free.

It only takes a few minutes to get a lump of sugar with the three doses of Sabin oral vaccine at one of the KO polio stations.

Each polio station will be staffed by 35 qualified personnel, including the following:

One school director, a medical doctor provided by the medical society; one clinic coordinator from the school; one nurse supervisor provided by the County of San Mateo; four nurses, a volunteer supervisor; one pharmacist; one chief registrar from the local PTA; six registrars; one chief tabulator; two tabulators; three vaccine preparers, one hospital auxiliary, one banker from Wells Fargo; four cashiers, seven Boy Scouts, and one school custodian.

Most of the staff will work on a two-shift basis, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and from 2:30 to 9 p.m.

Individual Can Help ... Dr. Gobar says the individual can help the KO Polio drive in the following way:

By putting up posters, and canvassing blocks of houses.

"See that your family and five others attend the clinic and receive the vaccine," Dr. Gobar urged.

"Many others are involved in this," he added. "There are three sugar cubes to take; three Sundays, three types of polio, three and one-half million people who we're hoping to reach and anyone from three months old to 300," Dr. Gobar said.

Harman felt there were significant emotional disturbances evidenced by all firemen when they were asked critical questions. The two non-employees showed no emotional disturbances when asked critical questions.

The firemen deny the statements made by Grizzell and Hamilton. They do admit to consuming beer. Cross admits to having a shot of whiskey.

"It is generally consented that the beer was plentiful and was passed around," city attorney Paul Hupf said.

The firemen admit to drinking at least two beers. The testimony of Cross and Dresser is drawing to a close. Malcolm had not testified by Monday night.

Attorney Hupf said he had considerable rebuttal evidence to present to wind up the hearings.

it must be prepared to show why this other type of reorganization is necessary and how it would constitute steps towards ultimate unification.

Each of the five different boards gets one collective vote. The county committee outnumbers the local boards on votes by a two-to-one ratio.

When this phase of the program is completed, the recommendation is turned over to the State Legislature. And here is where the decision of unification has its only chance of being ousted.

The Legislature must send the plan back to the people of the Jefferson district for a popular vote.

When the particular study for the Daly City districts is concluded, the State Department of Education must set upon it and set up a time for a special election.

The people of the district will decide whether the plan is to be accepted or rejected.

'Freedom Is Indivisible'

It is an unfortunate fact that many words of wide connotation are so often used, abused and misused as to lose their basic meaning in the minds of great numbers of people. Two of those words are "capitalism" and "socialism." Ask the next man you meet for a definition of them, and it will be a minor miracle if you get a clear answer.

Henry Hazlitt, in one of his Newsweek magazine columns, says something that should be far better understood than it actually is. To quote: "Capitalism is merely the name for a system of economic liberty. Under it civil and political liberties flourish and are secure. Under a complete or nearly complete socialism neither economic nor political liberty can exist. Freedom is indivisible. How can there be freedom of press, speech, or assembly when the government owns all the newspapers, presses, and assembly halls? As Leon Trotsky (who knew) wrote in 1937: 'In a country where the sole employer is the State, opposition means death by slow starvation. The old principle: Who does not work shall not eat, has been replaced by a new one: Who does not obey shall not eat.'"

One phrase alone, taken from this quotation, sums up the story: "Freedom is indivisible." Without economic freedom there can be no other basic freedom. This is why capitalism, whatever its faults, has done more good for more people, tangibly and intangibly, than any other system yet devised by man.

'The Superior Approach'

The bitter fight over the Administration's medicare bill—for providing medical benefits to everyone drawing Social Security payments, whether or not they needed or wanted them—obscured the solid achievements of the Kerr-Mills bill, enacted in 1960.

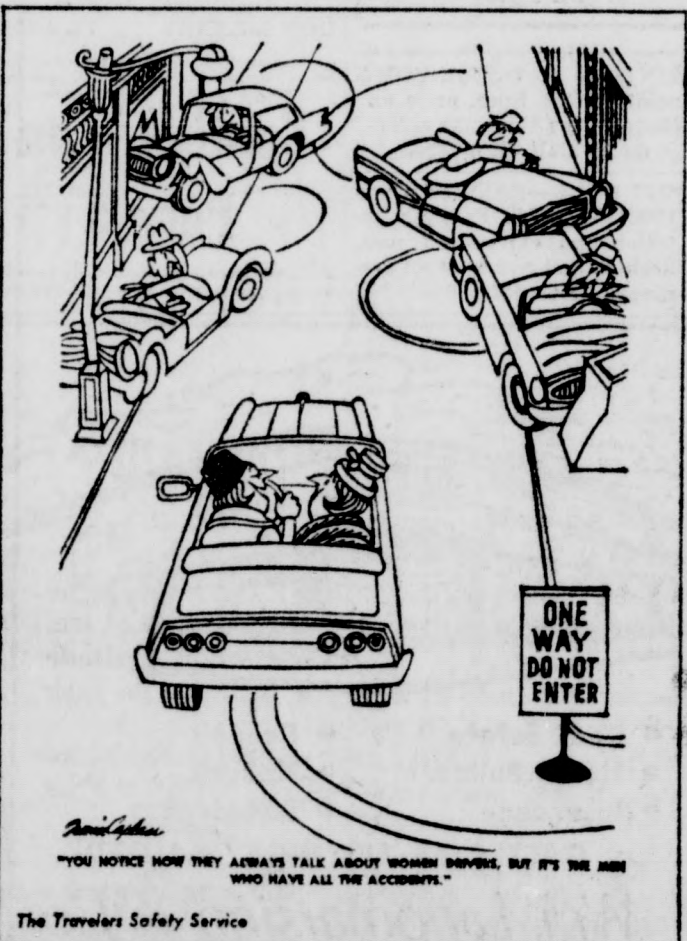

This bill provides for federal-state programs to aid elderly people who are actually needy so far as being able to pay for medical services is concerned. It places the administrable emphasis where it belongs—at the local level. It is designed to deal with the problem in the most effective and economical manner, and to do that in a way which will prevent bureaucratic domination of medical practice and a breakdown in the traditional doctor-patient relationship.

But the medicare supporters have given Kerr-Mills the deep-freeze treatment. So it's time to look at the record.

In the brief period of time since its enactment, 28 states and three territories have adopted the medical assistance for the aged provision it contains, and 24 of these are also using the expanded old-age assistance benefits it offers. Fourteen other states, and the District of Columbia, are using old-age assistance benefits alone. Only eight of the 50 states are implementing it according to their particular needs.

No one claims that Kerr-Mills is perfect. It is ploughing new ground, and experience will tell where amendment and liberalization of its provisions are required. But it has made a start—a big start—toward the solution of a vexing problem.

By J. Arthur Younger

CONFUSION COMPOUNDED—It would seem that our system of Intelligence has not improved since the Cuban fiasco for on August 7th in Los Angeles, Brainerd Holmes, President Kennedy's Director of our Manned Space Flight Program said: "The United States now matches or leads the Soviet Union in all important aspects of the space race," and he added "this country ranks at least equal to the Soviets in rocket take-off power." President Kennedy in his talk to the nation on August 14th had this to say about the Russian space accomplishment that day, and I quote: "We are behind and we will be behind for a period in the future, but we are making a major effort now, as this country will be heard from in space as well as in other areas in the coming months and years." Is there any wonder we are confused on this issue?

SOMETHING IS BEING DONE—Judging from some of the letters I receive, one might conclude that nothing has been done for the World War I veterans, but here are the facts. All of the veterans with service-connected disabilities are receiving compensation. Also 1,090,000 veterans and 483,900 widows of World War I veterans will be receiving non-service connected pensions in 1963. Veterans of World War I are going on the pension rolls at the rate of 8,600 per month and the Appropriation Committee recently appropriated for fiscal 1963 $1.4 billion to cover the cost of these non-service connected pensions.

THERE IS A LIMIT—In some quarters there is an idea that the Social Security Fund can be continually loaded down with new programs and remain solvent, but I think the railroad retirement plan may give us a clue as to what might happen to social security. In 1946 there were 1,622,000 railroad employees paying into the railroad retirement plan and 183,000 collecting benefits. In 1961 there were 836,000 railroad employees paying taxes into the railroad retirement fund and 819,000 collecting benefits, with the fund running an actuarial deficit every year.

SOMEbody IS WRONG—In his talk to the nation on August 14th, the President made this statement, "Four hundred thousand unemployed men and women are now receiving re-training so that they can now find new work in industries in new jobs." On August 16th, Congressman Goodell of New York, a member of the House Education and Labor Committee, made this statement on the House floor in speaking of the re-training program, "Funds for the program have just become available and it will be two years before many people could presumably be re-trained. As of now the number being re-trained is exactly zero."

A PUNITIVE EXPEDITION—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is fitting in perfectly with the Administration's retaliation against Members of Congress who do not support the Administration policy. The day after the Senate turned down the medicare bill, the Secretary announced that a giant Navy radio-telescope at Sugar Grove, West Virginia, was going to be abandoned after the Government had put $47 million into building the massive truntable. This announcement followed the day after Senator Randolph of West Virginia controlled the one vote which defeated the medicare bill. It does seem that the Defense dollars are being used as brass knuckles.

HAVE SOME GOODIES—Carl T. Rowan, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs recently urged a group to seek appointment to high government positions because, as he put it, that is where "so many of the goodies of American life are passed out." He failed to add that the goodies were passed out at taxpayers' expense.

HIGH PER-CAPITA COST—A shocking example of how your tax money is being spent may be found in the town of Saxman in Alaska, where the Area Redevelopment Agency has approved a project for the construction of port facilities costing $1,500,000 in a town which has a population of only 75. The project will benefit the Canadian railroad and be a detriment to the Alaska Steamship Company.

EFFECTIVE SECURITY WE HOPE—The House Un-American Activities Committee has reported that the National Security Agency has taken 22 steps to correct the deficiencies uncovered by the Committee's investigations in connection with the defection of mathematicians Vernon S. Mitchell and William H. Martin to Russia. Another worthwhile job by the Un-American Activities Committee!

SOME STOCKPILE—As of May 31st the cost value of our stockpile of strategic and critical materials; agricultural commodities; civil defense supplies and equipment, and machine tools totaled 13.6 billion.

A DIFFERENT VIEWPOINT—One important reason as to why there is such a difference of opinion between the Executive and Legislative branches of the Government at the present time is that the Congress is unwilling to grant the demands for increased power requested by the Executive. The Congress agrees with Herodotus who said, "Power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely."

TWO TO ONE IN FAVOR OF U.S.—The Washington press corps totals about 1300 people of whom half may be considered bonafide correspondents. On the other hand, the Federal Government in the various departments employ some 3,000 press and information officers. In addition, the various departments employ some 150 Congressional Liaison men. These are in addition to the Liaison staff in the White House under Lawrence F. O'Brien, who has four assistants.

EMPLOYMENT BOOMING HERE—The Executive agencies of the Federal Government are certainly doing their part to decrease the unemployed rolls of the country, for in June they added 34,921 new civilian employees, bringing the total number of civilian employees to 2,496,455—accounting for an annual payroll of something over $14.3 billion.

YOU WOULD NEVER GUESS—The State Department only recently disclosed that they had used some $30 million of their international account to reduce the delinquencies of a number of small state members of the U.N., and included in this list were Cuba, Yugoslavia, Poland, Albania and Hungary. This is indeed a strange use for the taxpayers' money.

SNOOPERS IN WASHINGTON—A recent House Committee report reveals that there are some 5,000 "snooper buttons" being used in Washington on Government telephones today, which permit others to listen in on a line without the caller knowing about it. The cost is about $16,000 a year.

A ROAD TO UNEMPLOYMENT—The Executive agencies contract with a company called General Services Industries, Inc., to equip and operate the various cafeterias in the Executive Department buildings, and I just learned that the new State Department cafeteria is equipped with chairs made in Yugoslavia. The foreign bid was $3 per chair lower than the domestic bid.

ONE-WAY STREET—The recent lifting by the State Department of American travel restrictions on Russian "tourists" so far has not brought comparable

The View From Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

HAPPY BIRTHDAY . . .

This is the fifty-second article in the View From Behind the Badge series. The articles are published in this newspaper. A small amount of figuring would lead one to conclude that the articles have been appearing for one year.

Such a conclusion would be correct. This column is one-year-old with this edition.

At the outset of this series, we said that we were endeavoring to represent ourselves to the public in such a manner that they would better understand the Daly City Police Department. We know that we have been successful in some cases; we would like to think that we have been successful in many cases.

As was done in the first column, we solicit comments, both pro and con, from readers. Some comments have been received in the year past; we would like to receive more.

Some articles received a certain acclaim. One such effort dealt with the duties and problems of the Police Dispatcher. Our good professional and personal friend from the California Highway Patrol, Officer John Jay Flynn (who is a local resident) undertook to disseminate copies to Highway Patrol dispatchers throughout the state.

Recently, the newspaper received a request for a copy of the same article from another city.

Once we disagreed with certain portions of the efforts of another columnist. We fear that we are unforgotten by him to this day. We wonder why?

Once we wrote about a beat patrolman on duty in the foggy dead of night. Patrolman Gordon Sims said us the flattering comment of mimicry when he wrote a satire of that effort. Our offer to him to publish the satire still stands, if he will revise the wording just a bit.

Other comments are received from time to time. Sergeant Terry through the article about the oral examination caught the mood of the thing. Deputy District Attorney Jim Browning agreed, flatteringly.

On the other hand, Deputy District Attorney Gerald Reagan, a friend in the court battles, laughs aloud at the mention of this column.

Patrolman William Schumacher advised us that we were in good shape, except when we tried to use big words.

Patrolman Ralph Warren wanted to know why we couldn't "write it like things really are."

Sergeant Murray claimed that it was written the way things really are.

We have been censored only mildly. Being a semi-military organization, our public utterances are naturally viewed critically prior to their implementation. In this scrutiny, we have only had a word crossed out here and there. We have been allowed to criticize as well as flatter our own organization.

Only one article was really censored. It concerned the comments of a cynical and frustrated policeman beating his breast in print at the thought of a corrupt and unreluctant recidivist being on the outside instead of behind bars; this was a result of a practical application of law following a good arrest. The column was rather too direct and angry, and was rightly withheld. It was the only one so censored.

The utterance which received the most comment to date was the effort on the door to door solicitor. Much of the comment was from solicitors, and this, too, was both pro and con. Although it is not a direct result, we seem to be getting a new solicitor ordinance from the City Council.

We have indulged ourselves in one real, continuous, if sporadic, crusade. That concerns the times when we have righteously howled a demand for better quarters. These are the efforts in which all hands favor the written comments in this space.

Our police station is old, crowded, improperly arranged for the best space use, and long overdue for replacement. A common complaint against governmental functions is that said functions are not operated in a manner comparable to private business. With respect to our quarters, nothing could be more true.

Any private business operating from a plant as ridiculously situated as the police station would undoubtedly go bankrupt. In all truth, we feel that we are a good department; we know that we are hampered by lack of space and overcrowding.

Our department has mushroomed along with the burgeoning population. We are like an Army Armored Forces commander trying to operate his tanks out of old cavalry stables.

And so—happy birthday to us. Who are we? We are the Daly City Police Department trying to communicate with the public we serve. The column is the joint thought of the Chief of Police and this newspaper.

The thoughts and representations are those of the Police Department. The words are Lieutenant Hansen's.

Fantastic Revolution Taking Place In The Field Of Water Transportation

by Captain Edward C. Nolan

There is a fantastic revolution taking place in the field of water transport which affects the daily lives of each and every one of us. In fact, water transportation has undergone more dramatic change and made more real progress in the past 15 years than in all of the centuries before.

Here I would like to acknowledge to my esteemed colleagues in rail, truck and air transportation the great and vital part they continue to play in making our modern civilization and high standards of living possible.

With this in mind, let us examine the changes which have taken place in the ships which carry our cargoes in the nationwide and worldwide trade.

Dry-cargo freighters have increased from 430' to 565' in length since World War II and their speeds have doubled to more than 20 knots.

relief on travel restrictions by the Russians for American tourists, and perhaps never will.

A NEW WAY TO SAVE?—Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman announced that his Farm Bill would save taxpayers' money, but his request for fiscal '63 includes an item for 5,400 more positions in the Department. The Department of Interior is also asking for 5,400 more people.

HIGH - PRICED ECONOMY—Invitations have been extended to some leading Michigan business executives to attend a $1,000 a plate dinner in October to discuss the economy of the country with President Kennedy. Is this that Administration of the little man?

A REAL SURPRISE—In 1962 Oklahoma still led all of the states in the Union in percentage of primary and secondary teachers with at least 4 years of college training. Their percentage was 99.7%. California ranked sixth with 96.9%.

Oil-takers, one big at 20,000 tons deadweight, have graduated in less than 15 years to super-tankers of 104,500 tons. The end of this fabulous growth is not yet in sight, for the keels have been laid for two new super tankers of 134,500 tons each. The lengths of these ships will be over three times the height of the tallest building in San Francisco.

October this year San Francisco Bay will witness the arrival of the nuclear-propelled freighter Savannah.

On the 26th of this month, the first ship with completely automated cargo handling gear will arrive in our Bay. It can unload and load itself in 14 hours. A conventional freighter would require 150 men to work for two weeks to do the same job.

This automation is made possible by the advent of the sea-van, which is a sea-going truck body without wheels. They vary in size to maximum dimensions of 8' widths, 8' heights and 40' lengths. The large vans can carry a 20 ton payload.

Another trend in the method of handling cargoes is the trend towards bulk cargoes. Here liquids such as wine or molasses or flowable solids such as grains of corn or rice are poured directly into a ship instead of being packaged.

What does the future hold forth? Well, the Naval Research Institute has developed an absolutely different type of ship propeller which can propel big ships as speeds up to 60 knots.

There is the possibility of the submarine freighter which can speed beneath storm waves with greater efficiency than a surface ship.

Regardless of which form ships will take, one thing is certain, they will continually get bigger and faster and their turn-around time (time spent in port) shorter.

Thus with water-cargoes moving more efficiently and with greater dispatch a greater and greater boom in world trade, with exports substantially exceeding imports, should take place.

As this fantastic revolution in water transportation continues it will bring about a mighty bolster to our local and national economy, an increase in our purchasing power and a wider variety and better quality of goods for our comfort and well-being.

(Capt. Nolan holds a ship Master's License, Unlimited, fourth issue; and has wide experience with shipping industry).

Something For Everyone

by

Samuel Chandler

I read an article that said the following is a typical American joke. "One night two drunks got into a boat to row across a lake. Although the lake was small, they rowed all night. When it was light again, one of them stood up and said, "gosh, we forgot to untie the dock."

Perhaps the author holds a low opinion of American humor. Nevertheless genuine humor plays a great part in American life. In the United States as elsewhere genuine humor in writing and acting is the kindly contemplation of the incongruities of character and circumstance. Its greatest use is to remind us, as Hunt observed, "That man should not be complacent as long as he has things about him that are as ungainly and ludicrous as the nose of the elephant and the neck of the giraffe."

In calling attention to these ungainly things, the humorist must amuse his auditors and at the same time be kind to them. If he causes them pain or embarrassment; if his humor bites and is cruel, he creates indignation and thereby kills the amusement and the readers desire to change the ludicrous subject of the humor. For this reason humor must be in good taste applying to the environment and to the auditors.

For example most of Mark Twain's humor is widely acclaimed. Yet his Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's is a rather cruel attack upon religion and is offensive to many readers.

In American literature and on the stage, radio, and TV, the devices most often used to create humor are verbal fencing, puns, distortions, novelty, satire, bluffing, burlesque, parody, bad spelling, faulty grammar, and free-wheeling barbs at the pretensions of the great and would-be greats in high places.

Reading humor is relaxing and rewarding. The Daly City Public Library has several excellent collections of the best of American humor. Moreover, in each library there are sections for books of humor. These books may be charged out and taken home for two weeks.

Fourteen teachers began their teaching experience at Westmoor last week. Some were hired as replacements for teachers who have departed, but the majority are to take care of the expanded enrollment. Two of them are teaching courses that Westmoor has started this year.

To begin the new metals program, which is being taught in the brand-new metal shop, is Charles Medeiros. In addition to metals classes, Medeiros has a general shop and mechanical drawing class. A metals teacher, formerly at Pelton Junior High in San Francisco, Medeiros is quite impressed by the Westmoor plant, which he feels inculcates the progressive look in education in the Bay Area.

Because of a grant from the Carnegie Foundation, Timothy Yang, who is presently connected with San Francisco State, is teaching both Westmoor and Jefferson students in beginning Chinese, Cantonese dialect. Yang received his B.A. from Taiwan Normal University in Taipei and his M.A. from the University of Oregon.

Another new addition to the language department is Miss Ann Davies, who will teach French. Miss Davies attended Santa Rosa Junior College on a two-year Doyle Scholarship and received an A.A. with honors in French at graduation. She went on to U.C. in Berkeley, majoring in French and minoring in Spanish.

Two graduates of San Francisco State are teaching in the English department of Westmoor. Robin Jackson, who is in his first teaching assignment, is teaching sophomore English and drama. He is very interested in using Westmoor's Little Theater for dramatic productions.

Coming from Encina High School in Carmichael, where he taught three years, is Robert Hilmo. Besides teaching the regular freshman English classes, Hilmo has two enriched freshman English classes.

Three men have joined the social science department: Robert Lott, Richard McCormac and James Pettie, Jr. After graduating from University of Notre Dame, Lott returned to his alma mater, Serra High in San Mateo, to teach for two years. Besides teaching social studies, Lott is the head coach of the frosh football team for 1962-63 season.

A first-year teacher, McCormac received his B.A. from the University of California at Davis, where he majored in social science and minored in English.

Coming from Liberty Union High School, near Pittsburg, is James Pettie, Jr. A graduate of Lowell High in San Francisco, San Jose Junior College, and San Jose State, Pettie is teaching world history and civics.

The business department has two new women teachers. Mrs. Donna Walsh, who majored in business and minored in economics at San Francisco State, is teaching the general business courses. She had previously taught at George Washington High in San Francisco. Teaching typing, general business, and steno-transcription is Mrs. Jane Schweitzer, who has had six years business teaching experience in Lakewood, Jackson, and St. Louis, Missouri. Mrs. Schweitzer has just returned from a year in Europe.

Helping to take care of the increased enrollment in physical education are Miss Carolyn Ames and Kent Herkenrath. Miss Ames, who taught for one year at Mercy High in San Francisco, is teaching five sections of P.E. and assisting Miss Shirley Minaker in Girls' Athletic Association. In addition to teaching boys' P.E., Herkenrath is coaching the cross-country team for the fall semester. He received his B.A. from San Jose State and has been head track coach at San Mateo J.C. on a part-time instruction basis for the last two years.

Beginning her teaching experience is Miss Anne Golden, who is teaching survey of science and chemistry. Joining Miss Golden in the science department is Darrold Fredericks, who is teaching biology. Fredericks has studied at Augustana College in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; Kansas University, Colorado University, Sacramento State and San Francisco State. Fredericks, who has three years' teaching experience, will also serve as the assistant frosh football coach.

T. P. Coyne, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

OBITUARIES

Aage (Jake) Jakobsen

Aage (Jake) Jakobsen, a 26-year-old resident of Daly City, passed away September 10 at the Junipero Serra Hospital in Daly City.

He was the loving husband of Eula C. Jakobsen; father of Betty Lewis of Tacoma, Wash.; brother of A. K. Jakobsen, Mrs. Elizabeth Zander and the late Fred Jakobsen, and grandfather of Cheri Dawn Lewis.

He was a member and past commander of Daly City Post 410, American Legion; Past Commanders Association of San Francisco; past Chief de Gare Voiture 393, Forty and Eight; Veteran WW I barracks No. 68 and a member of the Colma-Vista Grande Aerie 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Services were held Thursday, September 13, from the mortuary of the W. C. Lasswell & Co., thence to Golden Gate National Cemetery for military burial.

Harry J. Ackerman

Harry J. Ackerman, 446 Winchester street, Daly City, passed away September 12 in San Francisco.

A native of Iowa, he had resided in California 55 years. He was the husband of the late Gladys Ackerman and brother of Mrs. Pearl E. Basson and Hermann Richmann of Iowa.

Funeral services were held Friday, September 14, at 12:30 p. m. from the mortuary of W. C. Lasswell and Co., under the auspices of Crocker Lodge No. 454, F. & A. M.

Interment was at Olivet Memorial Park.

Annie E. Earle

Funeral services were held Thursday, September 13, from the chapel of the W. C. Lasswell Mortuary for Annie E. Earle, 2208 Marin street, Napa.

A life time resident of California, Mrs. Earle was the wife of the late William Earle of Daly City and the loving mother of Theodore and George Hapman, also of Daly City.

She is also survived by her sister, Mrs. Mary Reese, Mrs. Rose White and Mrs. Betty Fraser. She also left behind five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Interment was at Olivet Cemetery.

As any mother knows, it's usually hard to keep youngsters away from the phone. They love to use it. And it's important they learn how to use it properly when they're young. That's why we put together "Adventures in Telezonia." It's a teaching kit, complete with puppet movie, shown at left, that shows grade school students how best to use the telephone. We worked it out at the request of teachers and with their assistance. It teaches the right way to make calls, including those from public phones. And this training helps everybody get better telephone service. "Adventures in Telezonia" is available to schools just for the asking.

If school for your children means a college out of town, you might like to take a telephone tip from some other parents we know. They set up a weekly "date" to call... a certain evening or Sunday by prearrangement. That way they don't risk the disappointment of missing their "colleagues" and at the same time take advantage of low station-to-station rates.

One gift works many wonders when that gift is your contribution to the United Bay Area Crusade. That's because most of our voluntary health and welfare agencies share in what is given, and they in turn help children, teen-agers and adults in all walks of life.

When you're asked to give this year, remember how far your gift must go and how great the need.

The 11 Western States account for about 24 per cent of the mineral production of the Nation.

Broadmoor Presbyterian To Host Bay Area Seminar

Thirty-four Presbyterian churches from San Francisco to Menlo Park will send Sunday School teachers to Broadmoor Presbyterian Church for the first of three fall training school courses, beginning this Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The seminar is sponsored annually by the Christian Education Committee of San Francisco Presbytery, and is designed to present procedure and materials for use in church schools, from nursery age through senior high school.

Four general topics will be considered at the initial session: "How to Create Climate," "Developmental Tasks," "The Encouragement of Response," and "What About Discipline?" Faculty members have public school teaching training and experience, in addition to their church service.

Wednesday evening, Sept. 26, the group convenes in the social hall of the 87th street church for a 7:15 p.m. discussion of the general Christian Education theme, "Church, Faith and Life." Appropriate theological intensity for each age and grade level is to be examined, followed by dispersal to individual classrooms for presentation and examination of printed materials and audio-visual aids to be used during the current school year.

From 9 to 11 a.m., Saturday, a full class-by-class workshop will conclude the yearly training courses. Locally, Mrs. Frank Dethlefsen of Broadmoor serves as registrar.

Broadmoor Presbyterian

Church was chosen for the seminar location because of its excellent education building. The church school unit, a three-story structure, was built in 1952, and served for several years as an annex to the Garden Village School during times of acute classroom shortage. It was known to students of those days as "The 87th Street Annex."

Said Rued at last Tuesday's Sunday School dinner: "With some 75 teachers and assistants at work here in Broadmoor for our two services, it would appear that nearly one out of every eight members is somehow engaged in church school work. This emphasizes the importance of the Sunday School in our life."

Rued also recalled the days in the old quonset hut church which stood where the church lawn is now located. "It was rectic," he said, "putting away the scissors, chalk and crayons in time to set up the pulpit and chairs for worship service. The funny thing is now with two services of Sunday School, we're still running around, putting away scissors, chalk and crayons in time for the next Sunday School class."

Sunday School superintendent John Rued of the local church, along with the minister, Herbert Tweedie, will greet the attending teachers.

Ground-Breaking Ceremonies For New Temple Judea Next Sunday

The first Reform Jewish Congregation to be organized in San Francisco in over 100 years is breaking ground for its new temple, Congregation Judea, the group that inspired "Brotherhood Way" will hold its ceremonies Sunday, Sept. 23, at 2 p.m.

The ground-breaking will take place at the site of the new building on Brotherhood Way, between Lake Merced and Junipero Serra boulevards, in San Francisco.

The temple, designed by architect John Bolles and to be built by Henry Doelger Construction Company, will be in actual construction shortly after the ground-breaking ceremonies.

The unique idea of Brotherhood Way, an avenue dedicated solely to houses of worship of all faiths, was presented to the San Francisco City Planning Commission. Under the leadership of Mayor George Christopher, the plan became a reality. Immediately, groups representing the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths united in this new venture in American religious living.

Rabbi Herbert Morris, spiritual leader of Temple Judea, recently stated that "under the banner of Judeo-Christian tradition, the Western world has been given a concept of brotherhood in action. It is the aim of our joint religious heritage to strive together in making brotherhood a real and vital force in the life of our people. Only in America has this been possible to the fullest extent. Brotherhood Way, as an avenue in San Francisco—one of the leading centers of world culture—will give fresh meaning and impetus to the idea of brotherhood."

The San Francisco Council of Churches will hold its annual Religious Education Leadership Training Course on the first four Monday nights in October, it was announced this week.

A recent report on church attendance indicates that only 23,000,000 people in the United States attend church with any regularity. In days of crisis in which we live, people need the strength and help that comes from worship on the Lord's Day. With this in mind, the pastor will use as his topic at the morning worship hour on Sunday, Sept. 23, "Seventh Day Absentism."

At the evening gospel hour, the pastor continues in the series of messages on "Baptist Beliefs," speaking on "The Work of Christ." There will be special music at this service, and as always, a period of enthusiastic congregational singing.

Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m., a number of youths from the Westlake Baptist Church will be going to the San Francisco Youth for Christ rally, which meets in the War Memorial Building, Van Ness and McAllister in San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin F. Wilson, 317 Winchester street in Daly City. The groom is the son of Walter Prange of Detroit, Michigan.

The bride came down the aisle in a full, floor length dress of lace over tulle and soft taffeta with a finger tip veil attached to a headpiece made of pearls, designed low over the forehead. She wore a string of small pearls and her bouquet was of white orchids and amaranthus.

Performing in the role of maid of honor was Miss Nancy Cameron. She was attired in a turquoise blue sheath of rayon with an overskirt of organza in matching color. Her hairpiece, a veil attached to a halo, carried out the color scheme. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Dennis Morreale, Mrs. Luther Kleidon and Mrs. Jerome Nowicki, the groom's sister. Their dresses and headpieces were identical in design to the maid of honor but were in soft yellow.

The attendants' bouquets were made of Bells of Ireland. Holly Jae Wilson, niece of the bride, served as flower girl, and Robert Erwin Wilson, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer. Jerome Nowicki, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and serving as ushers were Robert Michaels, Dennis Morreale and Luther Kleidon.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

This has been a week! Just a short time ago we commented, the social whirl will be starting soon. Suddenly we found out, it's here!

The whole week was fascinating and one of contrasts—a week of experiences that makes us proud that we live this glorious Bay Area where so many exciting events are going on all the time.

It all began, appropriately enough, at a luncheon in the Pacific Room of the Cliff House at Seal Rock which seemed to set the mood for the rest of the week. With the spectacular vista of the rolling surf in the background, we watched a magnificent colored film, "Portrait of Golden Gate Park" produced by KRON-TV. The imaginative documentary faithfully recorded by photograph the development for the world-famous park from windblown sand dunes to meandering meadows, towering trees, exotic blossoms.

The next day found us at the YWCA model's training day where over forty girls were in attendance to learn the graceful way to pivot, the art of make-up, how to be feminine and charming—a woman of high fashion for which the Bay Area is noted.

Thursday found us on a house tour arranged by Holy Angels Women's Guild.

The first home that we visited was the Berlin residence located on Garden Lane in Garden Village. An emerald green lawn at the entrance to a truly lovely home. Quite spectacular was the sunken living room with a massive field stone fireplace flanked by cathedral windows. A built-in barbeque in the kitchen and spacious family room were impressive features about the home.

On to the Bizzo residence in Westlake, warm and friendly in feeling with provincial furniture. Spacious too, was this home with a new addition of bedroom and bath on the top floor. The cabinets in the bath were an attractive design in natural wood which blended so beautifully into the provincial decor.

The next home on the tour was the Stanghellini residence in St. Francis Heights, also spacious and most attractive. An outstanding feature of the home was wall-to-wall carpet in a rich red shade offering an effective contrast to the black furniture, oriental in feeling. Downstairs was an attractive family room with stone fireplace and an additional kitchen.

Truly unique was the last home on the tour, the Nannini residence. The entrance hall was dramatic with ribbon mahogany on the walls and the floors of marble. Up the stairs on one side was a large living room with the focal point a gleaming black fireplace. On the other side a spacious family room with built-in cabinets (even a dumb waiter to bring logs from the basement) and a dream kitchen with every push button gadget you wish. All the bedrooms were very spacious.

Friday was a busy day and an exciting one. In the morning was a press breakfast for artist Jaime Oates, Headmaster of Escuela de Bellas Artes de Taxco, Mexico. Accompanied by his lovely wife, he arrived in San Francisco the day before for the opening of his exhibition of oil paintings.

We found both Mr. and Mrs. Oates quite charming and most gracious. Mrs. Oates told us about her home in Taxco. She said it is the oldest residence there and they are busy restoring it. The home is on three levels she said and since the country is mountainous they have a view of rushing cascades down the mountain side.

At the breakfast four of the noted artist's paintings were on display. His technique is abstract and he paints with a combination of colors that are vivid yet restful. Since 1941 Mr. Oates has had annual shows in Galeria, Augusta, Barcelona, and Sal Prat, Valencia.

His paintings will be on exhibit at V. C. Morris, 10 Maiden Lane in San Francisco from September 15 until November 10. Do plan to stop by.

On the way home we stopped by Stonestown to take in the "Flea Market" Outdoor Bazaar. It was a happy crowd that was strolling through past the gaily decorated booths and sipping coffee at the sidewalk cafe. They were busy buying too taking advantage of the many values offered by the Stonestown merchants.

Our last stop was a reception for the YWCA's new Director, Pat Martinez at the Westlake Club House. Almost three hundred guests had visited during the morning hours to welcome Pat and inquire about the new classes.

Again we repeat—it has been quite a week and it could only happen in our magnificent Bay Area.

Football returned to the Bay Area over the weekend and, unfortunately, its homecoming left much to be desired. On Friday night the San Jose State Spartans lost to Utah State at Spartan Stadium and Sunday the San Francisco 49ers made their league debut in an inauspicious manner as they graciously bowed to the underdog Chicago Bears 30-14.

It was evident after the first few minutes that the 49ers came to the stadium to do something other than to play football.

The warm sun came beaming down into Kezar Stadium, bathing everybody in a shower of resplendent summer. It was probably the finest opening day at Kezar in history. Too bad the Niners had to spoil it.

Mr. John Brodie, who has yet to prove himself a top-flight quarterback though he has had many such chances, made a disgraceful display with the football. But Brodie can't be blamed entirely for the downfall of the 49ers to the previously winless Bears.

The pass protection which the 49er offensive line afforded Brodie was atrocious. The big Bear defenders seemed to slip through the 49er blockers like a mass of kids running for free ice cream. No doubt Brodie is a lot more proficient than he displayed Sunday, or he wouldn't even be a member of the taxi squad, much less a starter.

The rest of the team seemed to lack enthusiasm and drive also. The two running backs, J. D. Smith and C. R. Roberts turned in lackadaisical efforts. Roberts was unable to get up enough speed to get around the ends and Smith was unable to find any room up the middle.

Even Abe Woodson seemed unable to get untracked Sunday. He and Dale Messer gave a shabby showing in the punt return department.

Some credit must be given to the Bears. They performed like thoroughbreds rounded into form. Their five pre-season tune-ups all ended in defeat, but yesterday they got in front and continued to exert themselves for the full sixty minutes—never giving the Niners a chance to pull close.

Although the offense for the 49ers bogged down, a couple of fine catches by Clyde Conner and Bernie Casey were the exceptions, the 49ers defense performed admirably.

Rookies Ed Pine and Clark Miller both were outstanding on defense and look like they will be around in pro football for a long time. Miller was especially effective in the second half, throwing Billy Wade for a loss and stopping Rick Casares and Willie Galimore several times.

Maybe it was just an off day for the 49ers. Maybe they believed the press releases given by Papa Bear George Halas sobbing about the injured condition of the Bears.

Whatever it was that afflicted the local heroes Sunday, let's hope that they bounce back—pronto. We don't think that we could take another such incident as the Giants perpetrated—it's downright cruel to the avid sports fan.

ON THE SIDELINES . . . Former 49er and LA Ram star Tommy McCormick, football coach at South SF's El Camino High School, has his team making their debut in varsity football next Friday.

McCormick feels that his squad, made up of sophomores and juniors, will have a tough time in the new North Peninsula League this year.

However McCormick is known as one of the best conditioners in the business and it wouldn't surprise us a bit to see the Colts knock over a few of the predicted powerhouses.

And also in South City, Warrior football coach Ray DeJong reportedly has had to change his fullback plays this year. Last year the Warriors had fleet 160 pound fullback Ron Witschy who could sweep the ends like a halfback, but had a little trouble powering up the middle.

This year DeJong has big Steve Balopulos, 190 pounds, who isn't quite as fast and footed, but makes up for the lack in speed by booming up the middle.

One of the top pro quarterback prospects on the Pacific Coast this year will be SF State's Dick Valois. Valois, the number 12 passer in the nation last year, fires the ball fast and accurate.

It is rumored that the Green Bay Packers are very interested in him.

1962 Grid Season Opens Up Friday

By Garry Niver

High school football, crisp and fresh in its new autumn attire, comes charging full-force into the North Peninsula this week, pushing the last vestiges of summer out the door.

The teams from the high schools are being whipped into a collective spirit as they prepare to launch their 1962 grid campaigns.

Two new leagues will make their debut into Peninsula prep sports this year—the North Peninsula League in the northern tip and Mid Peninsula League in the center of San Mateo County.

Friday marks the day when the respective coaches get the real look at their 1962 squads.

Coach Pete Matisi's Westmoor Rams get things rolling in the northern end of the county when they host the Aragon Dons in a 3:15 p. m. encounter on Westmoor's field.

Coach Wayne Taylor's charges from San Mateo are making their first entrance through the portals into varsity competition. As a result, the hometown Rams have been installed the favorites.

The veteran-laden Rams have been working out diligently all week in preparation for the opener, and Matisi is quite optimistic.

"I have been pleased with the workouts to date," said the veteran Ram mentor. "We have been progressing a little slowly, but have enough experience to enter the game in fine shape," he added.

Those who have been looking real good in practice are 1961 All-PL end Steve Schmuck, tackle Mike Bowers, tight end Harry Johnson, quarterback Bruce Hix, halfback Mike DeBernardi and linebacker Ron Baker.

Matisi was especially high on Baker, a sophomore. "He has been making tackles all over the field this week," the Ram coach stated.

Starters for Friday's practice opener with the Dons are:

At the Mission street campus of Jefferson High School, Coach Joe McGrath has been busy all week preparing his troops for a 3:15 p. m. opener with Ravenswood on the Sequoia High School field.

Slender Larry Alhuna will be the probable starter in the quarterback slot.

But the Indians' main strength is expected to be in their line.

McGrath looks to have the beef up front this year in the form of center Daryl Crist, 210 pounds; tackle Al Lonstrom, 170 pounds; end Rick Waller, 190 pounds; guard Armando Cardena, 165 pounds; guard Rich Guerrero, 200 pounds; guard Bob Silber, 185 pounds, and end Ray Marshall, 160 pounds.

The Indians are expected to give the Ravenswood gridders a good run for their money. McGrath, though picked the underdog, is very optimistic of his chances for an opening game upset.

Coach Jess Jones' Oceana Sharks complete the afternoon's schedule when they host Lick-Wilmerding High School in their debut as a prep grid team.

With no returning lettermen and a host of untried sophomores and junior performers, the Sharks' potential is an unknown quantity at this time.

Terra Nova make its 1962 debut under the lights when it treks to Kezar Stadium for an 8 p. m. clash with the Riordan Crusaders.

Coach Floyd Gonella, whose team went winless in varsity competition last year, will be looking for an upset. Leading the Tigers onto the Kezar turf will be big, agile guard Manuel Pick.

Veteran backs Fred Mason, at a booming 205 pounds, and speedster Dennis Caruthers are expected to eat up plenty of the Kezar turf.

South San Francisco completes the NPL action when they host San Lorenzo in an 8 o'clock night contest at Clifford Field. The game will be televised and re-broadcast Saturday.

Coach Ray DeJong, who is missing the services of quarterback Rich Wickersham—out with blood-poisoning—will have to depend on the speed of Jesse Miller and Bob Szechner, and the booming drives of fullback Steve Balopulos.

Touch Football League Opens

The Daly City department of recreation has announced the start of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade Touch Football leagues. All local clubs, coaches, schools, Scout troops and other organizations are invited to participate.

Interested parties may obtain rules and additional information by calling the Daly City recreation department at PL 5-0850, extension 18.

League play will start September 29.

DALY CITY'S contribution to coach Vic Rowen's S. F. State Gator grid eleven is guard Angelo Crudo, 39 Ocean Grove.

D. C. The Gators won their season's opener last Friday night at Santa Barbara, squeaking by the Gauchos, 16-14.

THE SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO Junior Umpires Association gathered at Sun Valley Dairy last week to be honored with trophies. The managers of the South San Francisco Pee Wee League were also present to show their appreciation to the boys who umpired approximately 145 games during the season. Left to right: Bob Auriemma, Tom Olmo, Mike Jones, Larry Asterlind, Joe Caron, John Majka, Pee Wee League president Tom Teshara, director of umpires Tom Davis, Alan Paganucci, Ken Grant, Gary Hellow, Paul Jones, Frank Lucia, and Dan Driscoll.

Castle Strikes N' Spares

San Francisco last week witnessed the debut of the new Ken Bailer 960 Classic, probably the highest average eight team league in the Bay Area.

This week, Lou Presly with a 650 series was the high scorer. Lou's team, Ken's Flying A, lost two games to Hoffman Plumbing, 8239-2832. Lerrios Travel Service won all three games from Larrabaru French Bread. Bud Lair was the big shooter with a 618 series.

A. J. Dichiera Builders won two games from City Crille and Radiator and have shot four 1000 games to date. Jerry Hale and Red Simcox had 614 while Fred Von Husen's 610 was tops for City Grille. Foremost Dairies won the odd game from the Castle Kids, with Larry Halloran hitting 615, while for the Kids, Mary Nyman's 628 was the best score.

The league had thirty-eight 200 games, ten 600 series, five 1000 games, while the Castle Kids had high game of 1063, and Dichiera Builders had high series of 2913. This looks like major league scoring.

The Bay Area Junior "900" Masters opens at Castle Lanes this coming Sunday at 6 p. m. This will be a ten team circuit, with the best junior bowlers of all northern California. The Castle "King Pins," the defending champs, will be back to defend their title, plus the strong L & L Pro Shop junior team.

This is a real honor for one bowling establishment, to be able to field two 900 junior teams. The "King Pins" have just won the All Southern California match scratch game championship.

This Sunday, September 23, will bring the curtains down on America's richest jack-pot doubles. More than 3000 doubles teams have already shot in lure of the $9,000 guaranteed prize fund.

Castle's most exciting league is now being formed. The new famous Castle Vacation League, with more than 100 having already signed up for the vacation of their life—jet transportation, first class hotel accommodations (Princess Kaiulani), cocktail party, beach barbecue, luau, fashion show and a Polynesian dinner. Also included is a tour of Pearl Harbor, and many, many more thrills.

The vacationers will spend 11 nights and 12 days in Hawaii for only $8 per week which includes the bowling. Why argue with success—sign up now with Tom Hutcheson.

Castle will hold its junior sign up this Saturday, September 22. See Don Coleman and bowl where the "Junior Champs Are Made."

Mary Friedl has a league every day of the week for all housewives. Bring your friends and bowl in one of America's most beautiful bowling establishments.

The National Bowling Journal honored Castle Lanes with a colored picture of the Olympic Room, only two interior pictures of all the lanes in the U.S.A. were used. The caption read: "The restaurant in Castle Lanes in San Francisco is typical of elegant eating facilities in California's most beautiful bowling center."

Larry Laub, who has just graduated from junior bowling, took over the lead in the Aid Retarded Children tournament with a sensational score of 755 on games of 288, 225 and 242. Some very nice shooting for a 19-year-old young man.

Tuesday evening was high score night for Boyd Golledge in the 750-775 shooting 600 to win the title for the All American Bowling Supply. The 850 League had Tony De Battista with 192, 215 and 218 for a 625 plus Pete Gonzales' 227, 231, 190 for a big 648.

Four days after the discovery of X-rays in 1895, they were used to locate a bullet embedded in the calf of a patient's leg.

The Daly City Recreation Department announces the beginning of its Fall Recreation Program. Active programs will be carried out at the many recreational facilities in the community. Stress will be placed upon healthy physical activities in the children's areas of interest. Teenage and adult activity will combine physical, social and specialized interest programming.

The following facilities will be supervised starting September 17 from 3:30-5 p. m. on weekdays and 10 a. m.-4 p. m. on Saturdays:

CSM Meets Pasadena On SSF Turf

The winningest junior college football team in California opens its home season at South San Francisco High School field Saturday evening.

College of San Mateo, which has won 10 straight contests since dropping its opener at Pasadena City College last season, gets a chance for revenge against the same Pasadenaans Saturday at 8 p. m. CSM opened its 1962 season on the road last Friday with a convincing 42-22 thrashing of traditional rival Stockton.

Besides Pasadena, only San Jose in 1960 and Contra Costa in 1959 have upended the Doug Scoville-coached Bulldogs in the past three seasons. Pasadena triumphed, 12-7, over the Bulldogs in their Rose Bowl stadium last year. In the series inaugural, back in 1939, 20,000 fans watched Pasadena triumph, 9-0. CSM won the only other game in the series, 41-31, in 1940.

Pasadena brings seven lettermen and two starters from the 1961 team which finished 5-4 after winning its first three starts. New Lancer head coach Don Hunt is worried about his "terrible" pass defense. Pasadena held powerful Riverside scoreless in a scrimmage September 9, but, according to Hunt, "the ball was not even thrown well for the most part and they were still completing them."

The Lancer line stopped the big Riverside squad when it counted, however. Impressive for Pasadena were veteran guard Jim Fogarty (5-6, 190), middle linebacker Gene Pride-more (5-10, 160) and tackle Dave Hettema (6-2, 273), a second team All-Western States Conference selection last season.

Fans may attend Saturday's contest plus CSM's four other

Those who are the most enthusiastic about baseball many times, can't afford to pay the price of admission.

To this group—Willie Mays has got to be the greatest guy.

It was 10:15 a.m. of a day game when Willie drove up to the parking lot next to the dressing room. A bunch of kids scrambled around his car to say Hey—or rather "hi"—to Mays.

You wouldn't be able to scrape up a nickel in the jeans of any kid in the group. So Mays grabs one kid by the ear and marches him over to the box office and buys him a ticket to the game.

That brought a howl from the rest of the gang: "Hey, Willie, how about the rest of us?"

Mays ended up buying the whole pack tickets for the game.

It wasn't anything special, because Willie Mays does this all the time. He enjoys treating the kids to some baseball.

This is why Willie Mays is my favorite player.

Billy Pierce, no spring chicken, attributes his amazing pitching success at Candlestick Park to the cool San Francisco weather. The veteran lefty has won his first 10 starts here. But the hot weather and humidity has sapped him into mediocrity on the road. The Bay Area has been a fountain of youth for Billy. . . . Jose Pagan says "me tired." The sweet fielding shortstop from the land of sugar and Cubalibres says that Orlando Cepeda and himself will have played 300 games this year in winter league, grapefruit league and regular season games. Neither one plans to play winter ball this time around. . . . Orlando Cepeda's favorite pastime: "Seeing Marlon Brando movies once, twice . . . maybe three times . . . Tom Haller, Giant catcher, had quite a week for himself recently when he belted three homers in five days—two coming against the Dodgers. It was Tommy's biggest HR explosion since coming to the majors. But the former Illinois quarterback left a splendid reputation for power hitting in the minors. At Tacoma, Haller unloaded three homers in one game . . . an additional not on Haller: He will work in a bank as a public relations man on the off-season.

Reserve catcher Johnny Orsino, a teenage hero of sorts, says that he's going to sell cars at Burlingame Motors this winter. . . . A band aid may be a charity organization for musicians, but they serve only the purpose of injuries for the Giants. The list of casualties is a long one. Among the handicapped have been Mike McCormick (sore arm), Billy Pierce (spike wound), Jimmy Davenport (broken hand), Willie McCovey (charley horse) and the Alou brothers. They've had just about everything.

Bob Lemon and Eddie Joost are reportedly going into business together. What kind of business? . . . The Lemon Joost business.

But seriously speaking, Joost has a men's store in Burlingame. But the ex-A's pilot is hoping to get back into baseball as a scout. Eddie's like a fish out of water. He's hooked.

The day may come when we see a batter take off his batting glove and slap the pitcher with it and say "you cad." You're a nobody if you don't have a batting glove these days. Giant Chuck Hiller claims that this is the reason why he's hitting better this year. The glove is worn on the upper batting hand. It gives the hitter a firmer grip on the bat.

San Mateo County Rifle Range Opens Doors

San Mateo County's Coyote Point Rifle and Pistol Range will open today at 9 a.m.

The Peninsula Peace Officers will use the range from 9 a.m. until noon Tuesdays through Fridays. The range is open to the public from noon until 9 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays; from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. on weekends and holidays. The range is closed on Mondays for maintenance.

Rangemaster Dermot E. Vangene is planning hunter safety, marksmanship and instructor classes starting in November. Interested adults and youngsters are encouraged to sign up at the range.

So. Sunset Wins Western Division

Chuck Lee's South Sunset team took the Junior League Far Western Division title last Saturday at Marchbanks Park by a 2-0 score.

It was a real heart-breaker for the Misracks team. Misracks' pitcher Jim Owens collected a non-hitter from the South Sunset batters only to see it thrown away by errors. Owens also hit three for three for half of the Misracks' six hits but to no avail as Misracks could not send a runner across the plate.

Adult Softball Opens Play-Offs

The Adult Softball League sponsored by the Daly City department of recreation will start its play-offs this Saturday, September 22.

Results of the league saw South San Francisco's Native Sons taking first place; Stumble Inn, second; St. Clair's Liquors, Skyline Cleaners and Ye Olde Firehouse tied for third. The tie was broken by drawing lots.

St. Clair's Liquors took third place, and Skyline Cleaners and Ye Olde Firehouse will play for fourth place this Saturday.

The winner of that game will meet Stumble Inn in the play-offs. St. Clair's Liquors will play the South San Francisco Native Sons on Sunday, September 23. The winners of both games will meet for the championship at a later date.

St. Charles Parish Bowling Tourney

The annual St. Charles Parish Hall fall carnival will be bolstered by a special companion singles bowling event at the San Carlos Bowl, it was announced Monday by chairman Art Donaldson.

The first annual Carnival Singles will be staged for men and women, 18 years and older, for a week—September 24-30, the tournament director said.

A handicap affair, the carnival singles offers outstanding merchandise prizes for winning entrants. Donaldson said lanes will be available for the tournament between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., September 24-28, and until 11 p.m. on the September 29-30 weekend.

The tournament will use the 1961-62 blue book averages, handicapped two-thirds from 200. Men will be given a maximum of 120 pins and women 160. Those without established averages must use 140 averages in men's play, 120 in women's division.

Entry fee is $2.50 for the three-game test. Bowlers may enter as often as they wish.

Pacific Squares Registrations Open

Registration for the beginners' square dancing classes sponsored by the Pacific Squares Dance Club was held September 17.

All interested couples who did not register on that night may still avail themselves of the opportunity to learn square dancing by registering at the school on Monday night, September 24.

The classes are held at the Pacific Manor School on Highway 1, across from the Super X Market in Pacifica.

Jim Wylie, club caller for the Pacific Squares, is the instructor for the new classes. For further information phone PL 5-2424, FI 5-6203 or FI 5-3831.

The ancient adage about a worm that turns has taken on new meaning to a lot of fishermen all over the country, and particularly so in the Midwest. Because fishermen there are waxing ecstatic over the fish-catching abilities of plastic worms, and insects of all types, and snakes, and eels and crayfish and tadpoles and water dogs and frogs and lizards, and on, ad infinitum. For one reason—they catch fish.

The plastic imitations are so realistic they feel like bugs, look like bugs and taste like bugs, to those who have had some experience as a bug taster—and most fish have, luckily for us who like to angle.

In the daytime, when most of us do our fishing, use a plastic imitation that goes deep, because there is where the fish will be. In early mornings and late evenings, when the water has cooled and the fish come into the shallows to feed, use surface lures.

Had a chance for dramatic proof on worms earlier this year at Lake Ouchitza, just outside Hot Springs, Ark. Fishing had fallen off at the big impoundment, and limit catches were few and far between. So my fishing partner and I tied on black plastic worms with lead heads, fired up our Mercury outboard motor and ran upwind of one of the numerous rocky points that dot the scenic paradise.

Then we cut the motor and drifted, bouncing the worms off the bottom as the wind moved us gently along. Our first drift produced a keeper largemouth bass, and our second drift two more. In two more points we filled our limits. Now this is not to say that plastic imitations are the only lures to use, because that is not always the case. I've got a tackle box full of wood and hardware that I'm continuing to use. But now I've got another box, with plastic worms in it, and it's getting used more and more every day.

DC Father Plays A Real Sport—Sky Diving

By GARRY NIVER

The human figure hurtled out of the door of the plane at 5,600 feet and fell swiftly towards the earth below. On the ground many thousands of spectators lifted their heads as the figure sped towards them.

His outline against the infinite background of blue made him almost seem insignificant—like a moving pebble in a hypnotizing blue sea.

All of a sudden a trail of colored smoke began trailing from the descending figure. The figure, still free falling towards the ominous patch of earth below, began doing somersaults and figure-eights as the people below gasped in awe.

The figure was still falling, and still the parachute did not open. More figure-eights and the tiny figure got larger and larger to the people on the ground.

Finally at about 3,400 feet, some 2,200 feet and 20 seconds later, a multi-colored chute came billowing out of the packet on the man's back. In a fraction of a second it picked up the air and the figure was jerked almost to a standstill.

The people applauded the daring feat which they had just witnessed above. Next, fighting the brief breeze with the chute, the jumper maneuvered the shrouds, swaying back and forth, all alone, in the clear, crisp blue sky.

The jumper approached an area with a big 'X' imprinted on it. He settled down inches away from the target, amid a turbulence of thunderous applause.

The scene of the above incident was the dedication ceremonies at the new Metropolitan Oakland International Airport last Sunday.

An estimated crowd of 250,000 was watching as Sp5 Louis Nieves, 774 Bellevue avenue, Daly City, gathered up his chute and walked briskly away—completing a daring exercise in the sport of sky diving.

The youthful appearing Daly City father is an active member and one of the founders of the 40th Brigade Sport Parachute Club of the U. S. Army Parachute team.

Nieves, a six year resident of Daly City along with his wife Almeda, and children, Wanda, 13, Keith, 8, and Angela, 6 years, performs the dangerous sport of sky-diving with the precision of a watch maker and accuracy of Willie Mays catching a fly ball.

Sky diving is a sport which takes nerves of steel and the utmost of conditioning. Unlike most men who jump once and quickly lose the desire, Nieves wouldn't have it any other way. His life is built around sky-diving and it is a sport in which he takes great pride.

His various multi-colored and decorated helmets and parachutes depict the meticulous effort which Nieves puts into the sport. Each step of preparation for a jump takes time and patience, and only a person who truly had a dedication to the sport would be able to perform all of its functions properly. And all must be performed properly because you only make one mistake once—there are no second chances in sky diving.

The sensation derived from sky diving is something which Nieves terms "undescrivable." The jovial soldier shakes off a jump like something matter-of-factly—maybe like going down to the grocery store for a carton of milk. But one thing is for certain, unless you have the good physical conditioning and nerves of steel that Louis Nieves possesses, we wouldn't suggest trying the sport of sky diving.

Be like us, and take that trip to grocery store, and pick up the milk . . . it is so much safer that way.

Restaurant Career Scholarship Grant For Marine Veteran

A young Marine Corps veteran who began as a busboy will be helped toward a career in restaurant management through a scholarship at City College of San Francisco's Hotel and Restaurant division.

The $500 two-year grant was awarded this week to John D. Burch of Monterey by the San Mateo County Restaurant and Tavern Owners' Association.

Burch, 23, started work at the Red Chimney Restaurant in Stonestown to support himself during his freshman year of general studies at San Francisco State College. Managers Stanley Demoy and Macon Patterson of that restaurant recommended the restaurant career to him, and recommended Burch to the City College Restaurant Division. (The Red Chimney is a part of the Lyons-Magnus restaurant chain; most of Lyons-Magnus' restaurant managers are graduates of the same school.)

The scholarship winner is a graduate of Jefferson Union High School in Daly City and served in the Marine Corps from 1958 to 1961. He now lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Finnegan, at 412 - 4th avenue, Monterey.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

It's "Welcome to Westlake" for almost 1,000 bowlers of the California Elks Association as team competition gets underway at 9 p.m. Thursday, September 20. Secretary Carl Hughes reports that entries have been received from all parts of the state for the tournament that will conclude on Saturday evening. A feature of the tournament will be a special match game at 2 p.m. Saturday between two teams of "Young Id Times." The team from northern California has a total age of 366 years, while the southern California team has not yet released the total age of the team members.

Wednesday nights will be practice nights at Westlake as there will be lanes for open play from 6 to 8:45 o'clock. This is an opportunity for a "mid-week workout" for open play bowlers.

First member of the ladies 550 club is Sue Burgoyne, who bowled a 204 game and 557 series in the Kings and Queens 850 Mixed Scratch League.

This is the year of big leagues at Westlake as the Western Handicap has 24 teams. Lake Merced Handicap has 20, 825 Scratch League with 17, Evening Stars 20, and the daytime ladies are going right along with 22 teams in the Wednesday Morning Glory League and 16 in the Tuesday morning A-1 Nursery League.

Gene Tarczy led the way in the Early Fives League as he posted a 197 game and 539 series. The competition is keen in the Tarczy household between Gene and wife Jane as to which is the better bowler.

New names on the bowling horizon were introduced last week as Gus Candito led the Country Club League with 245 and 573 and George Rocchi led the Westmoor Handicap with a 233 game and 558 series.

Winners in the Sunday night No-Tap Sweeper were Norma Baldelli and Bill Thater. Norma won $11 while Bill took home $15 for his effort. Again more than 70 bowlers were on hand for this popular Sunday night feature.

The Ladies' 800 Scratch Classic was off to a flying start for the winter as Louella Brown again took the leading lady spot with a 210 game and 568 series.

Westlake will be the site of the final matches of the B. P. A. A. All-Star Eliminations later this month. Eight bowlers from Westlake will compete for the right to represent northern California in the national finals.

Eleven bowlers joined the new "600 Club" during the first week of winter league bowling. Sporting the patches of membership in this exclusive club are Don Broll, Bob Johnson, Suds Bier, Henry Sullivan and Larry Oppenheim in the 915 All-Star League, Jim Pistolesi and Frank Peterson in the Peterson Point Singles League and Al Moore, Jules Hacke and Bill Taft from the Kings and Queens 850 Scratch.

Arne Nord used a two's in the Golden Gate League as he shot a 222 game on opening night, finishing with a 607 series.

Karl Ryden led the Blue Monday 811 Scratch League on opening night with a 234 game and 613 series.

Frank Hubert became the new "King of the Hill" in the Friday Jackpot Sweeper as he shot a 726 total to take first prize of $23 then defeated Les Reams six strikes to three in the Jackpot Rolloff. The Jackpot is now $175.

Almost 200 Junior bowlers were on hand for Junior Registration Day as Primo Liberator, Junior director, announced plans for the winter season. In addition to the regular Saturday morning league, Primo is scheduling a Friday afternoon league as well as a Sunday morning mixed fours league. He announced that there are openings until next Saturday in all leagues.

Bob Laube led his "No Name Five" to a 2980 total in the current third annual Westlake Men's Handicap tournament with a 622 series on games of 198, 213 and 211.

Last Wednesday, Westlake Bowl had a "new look" as the North San Mateo YWCA welcomed new director Pat Martinez and 25 girls were on hand for "Models' Training Day." The first fashion show of the season is scheduled for October 4 with Mrs. Doris Fox as chairman.

The Sonoma County project involves grading and paving to construct 3.6 miles of four-lane freeway to six-tenths mile north of Hiatt road, approximately one mile south of Cloverdale.

The project includes construction of undercrossings and access ramps at Dutcher Creek road and Asti Post Office road.

Bids will be opened October 17 in Sacramento. A total of $2,400,000 in state highway funds is available for the project.

LOONEY IN THE BOONIES . . . The reason I didn't catch any fish to speak of was because I was looking for that very rare animal, the steelhead salmon—and then there fish are pretty tough to find.

Motoring from Daly City for a week's vacation into the north country to find the sun, and fish, was an exhilarating experience, to say the least.

Arising at 10 a.m., September 8, I drove leisurely over to Guerneville, where I took in the Fire Mountain Pageant, complete with Indians and Russian dances, did some fishing, and headed for the NORTH COUNTRY.

My eight-cylinder "Belch Fire" barely lived up to its reputation by slowly making it over the hills during the first day, enroute to the boon-docks.

I doctored it up with the usual nostrums and medications for ailing vehicles (oil additive, gas additive) and went smoking on my way, leaving a cloud in the faces of all motorists. The only good effect all the smoke produced was to give off plenty of carbon monoxide for the trees.

THE INDIAN SCENE—The Hoopa Indian reservation in Humboldt County was somewhat of a letdown. Instead of war dances, teepees and the usual TV Indian bit, they were driving around in new sports cars and owned well-kept ranch houses. One Indian boy was helpful by swimming across the Trinity and retrieving my tackle box for me. But his little brother threw a rock at me. He was a little wild.

THE KLAMATH RIVER in California is beautiful and wild and gives one the feeling that he is going to catch a whopper even though he doesn't. A real fisherman's river, nestled along its broad rushing path under heavily forested mountains that frown down upon the water.

At night, the tips of the trees stand out like Indian arrowheads against the sky. Then the moon comes out and touches the river like an orange floodlight. There is no sound other than the roar of the river and the droning of the locusts in the trees. An occasional honking of a goose or a duck's quack breaks the stillness.

I left this country after camping 25 miles south of Happy Camp, then headed south on U.S. 99, for a complete change of scenery.

Last Sunday was a scorcher in Guerneville, where I spent the night camping out, went fishing and swimming. The drive back to San Francisco was like opening the door to a blast furnace.

My corpuscles went into apoplexy as I toiled my eight-cylinder "Belch Fire" toward San Francisco, like a camel driver looking for an oasis.

Then that cool, delightful air of the Bay just west of Mill Valley, the fog pouring through the Golden Gate . . . and San Francisco—where people wear heavy coats on a summer day!

High atop Nob Hill with all the excitement and glamour of a Hollywood movie premiere, a new fall television show "Sam Benedict" was previewed last week in the magnificent Peacock Court of the Mark Hopkins Hotel followed by a reception in the Room of the Dons. Famed San Francisco lawyer, "Jake" Ehrlich, on whose career the new series is based, was host for the preview. In the "First Nighter" audience in addition to the stars of the show and representatives of MGM studios were over 400 leaders of government, business and the legal profession.

The new series which is produced by MGM studios in association with NBC will be seen on Saturday evenings at 7 p.m. over NBC, KRON-TV. Present at the screening in addition to Mr. Ehrlich was Edmond O'Brien who plays the title role in the new program.

Without a doubt the show will be one of the hits of fall season particularly in the Bay Area. Skillfully produced the show moves right along and has the finish and polish that is characteristic of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer productions. Throughout the program are many scenes of San Francisco landmarks, streets, buildings, which give the show that exotic touch that is San Francisco. With the colorful and dynamic career of Mr. Ehrlich as story source, the series can't miss.

Good news from KGO-TV is that high school football is back! The coverage includes not only the game but interviews with student officers and faculty of the schools featured as well as halftime activities. Also a "TV Prep Player of the Week" will be selected by a panel of Bay Area newspaper sports writers. Scheduled for this Saturday (Sept. 22, 9 to 11 a.m.) is Friday's game between South San Francisco and San Lorenzo.

COMING PROGRAMS: An important addition to KPIX's childrens programs is "Reading Out Loud" which premieres this week at 6:30 p.m.

A welcome addition for youngsters too is the "Mickey Mouse Club" which premieres over KTVU this week and will be shown weekdays at 5:30 p.m.

Important additions to KQED's programming include "Back to School Show" with Dick Ford and fifty children from nursery school to teen age (Sept. 19, 5:30 p.m.) and three programs all premiering this week on Wednesday "U. N. Review" (7:45 p.m.) "Trio" (8 p.m.) and "The Eye of the Artist" (8:30 p.m.).

SF State Students To Exceed 14,000

San Francisco State College's 64th year in the instruction of higher learning started Monday, Sept. 17, with a student body of more than 14,000, according to college officials.

The fall semester inaugurates a new president, Dr. Paul A. Dodd, the college's sixth official head in the history of the institution. Dr. Dodd, who was dean of the College of Letters and Sciences at the University of California at Los Angeles for 15 years previous to an overseas assignment under a Ford Foundation grant, takes office from acting president Frank Fenton, who retired from San Francisco State after 32 years faculty service.

New S. F. State Presy

Entering his first semester at San Francisco State, president Dodd said:

"In my brief association with San Francisco State College, I have come to know the excellence of its faculty, the breadth and strength of its educational program and the high motivations and objectives of its students. The reputation of the college has been known to me for some time, yet to observe these factors at close view is indeed exciting."

Last year's student body of 12,948 is expected to be outnumbered by more than a thousand, according to estimates given by Donald R. Gerth, associate dean of students-admissions. The number includes students both at the regular Lake Merced campus and those enrolled at the college's downtown center at 540 Powell street.

A record number of faculty members will also be present for the new semester. A total of 775 professors will be teaching at San Francisco State. The college is organized into nine instructional divisions and area studies with eight divisions, including academic departmental offerings and the ninth division devoted to the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps program.

Many drivers involved in rear-end collisions are quick to blame the other fellow for driving too close ahead. They may be partially right, according to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company. Many tailgate accidents occur because the lead car's brake stop lights were not working. In such cases the driver behind may not receive sufficient warning of a sudden stop, even though he thinks he is following at a safe margin of distance. CSM Campus Use Clarification Policy Set By College Trustees

A clarification of policy for use of Coyote Point and Delaware Campus facilities was approved by the board of trustees of the San Mateo Junior College District on September 12.

The board's request for review and revision, made at a previous meeting, was the result of several community questions concerning college relationship to outside organizations using facilities for meeting or class purposes. As submitted by superintendent Julio L. Bortolazzo, the revised policy specifies that "regular or special college educational purposes will have absolute priority. Use will be granted subject to the availability of the facility."

A major change from the previous policy involves the additional requirement that organizations qualifying for use under the Civic Center Act must notify those attending meetings in college facilities that the meeting or class is not sponsored by the college nor associated with the instructional program of the college.

In specific reference to the notification, the policy now states: "In case of meetings limited to one evening, proper notification will consist of a written statement given to each person in attendance. In those cases in which classes are conducted for two or more meetings, the using organization will have the additional responsibility of sending a letter to the home address of the parents of all minor students who attend the meetings."

18 HIGHWAY PROJECTS FOR S. M. COUNTY

State highway construction recommendations for San Mateo County were among those presented recently to the State Highway Commission in Sacramento by the California State Chamber of Commerce District Highway Project Study Committee. There were 18 projects listed for San Mateo County, of which six are for immediate consideration and 12 are long-term recommendations.

Presentation of the San Mateo County highway project recommendations was made by A. H. Clark, Soledad, chairman of the State Chamber's Central Coast District Highway Project Study Committee.

The highway project recommendations for the fiscal year 1963-64 covering all of California's 58 counties were determined during a three-month series of regional meetings held throughout the state by the State Chamber and attended by some 3,700 state and local government officials, civic leaders and others concerned with highway development.

The project recommendations are classified in three categories, in order of priority. The "A" category represents projects ready for immediate construction when funds become available. These account for over 38 per cent of the 1963-64 recommendations. "B" category includes projects recommended for further survey, design work and commencement of right-of-way acquisition, while projects in category "C" are for long-term planning.

Mrs. Kurt Goldstrom, National Vice President of Women's American Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Central Peninsula Chapter, Thursday, September 27 at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Goldstrom will speak about and show slides of her recent trip to ORT installations in France, Italy and Israel. The meeting will be held at the home of Dr. & Mrs. Sam Nerenberg, 300 Castaneda Dr., Millbrae.

ORT, the recognized vocational training and education agency of the Jewish people maintains 596 vocational training centers, schools and workshops in 20 countries on five continents. The high quality of ORT training has been attested to frequently.

ORT receives support from the governments of the countries in which it operates and even from some countries—for example, Sweden—in which it does not operate. Thousands of men and women receive from ORT schools training in more than 70 different skills and trades. This high standard vocational education is accessible to all. V. F. W. Picnic Is Huge Success

Commander Anthony Dias and the auxiliary president, Mrs. Albert Fawcett, top officers of South San Francisco Post 4103 and auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, combined their effort toward the annual picnic held Sunday, September 9, at the Blackberry Farm near Suptino, and announce the affair an unqualified success.

Owing to recent efforts to complete work on Veterans Hall located across the street from the South San Francisco police department at 312 Maple street, there was some doubt whether the annual picnic could be held this year. Realizing, however, how much the youngsters look forward to this day-long outing, as well as their parents, Commander Dias called a special joint meeting of the post and auxiliary to discuss ways and means.

A post picnic committee, headed by Commander Dias, was formed with the following members: Paul Fontana, senior vice commander; Ed Casey, quartermaster; Albert Collins, chaplain; and Anthony Valencia, judge advocate.

Serving under the auxiliary president were Mrs. Roy Albert, senior vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Magoon, junior vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Whitlock, conductress; Mrs. Anthony Dias, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Albert Collins, hospital chairman.

Huge amounts of chili beans, and potato and macaroni salads were home-made by the committee, along with plenty of hot dogs, buns and cookies.

Westmoor High School Greets Four New Student Teachers

Students won't be the only ones laden with books this semester; the four student teachers at Westmoor expect to follow suit. Although they will be teaching only two periods a day, they expect to do plenty of "homework."

One woman and three men comprise the Westmoor contingent, all from San Francisco State College. Mrs. Gudrun Yesson is the lone woman. A native of Germany and a transfer from the University of Frankfurt, where she majored in English, Mrs. Yesson started a new major at the San Francisco school—physical education. This is the field in which she will be doing her student teaching.

Meanwhile, her husband, another student teacher in physical education at State College, is at Westmoor's crosstown rival, Jefferson High School. Mrs. Yesson hopes to teach physical education and a language next year—preferably French or German, her two minors.

Student teaching in the German and English field at Westmoor is John Feniger. He will have first year classes in both languages. Eleven years of Feniger's life have been spent abroad; some of the time was spent as a soldier, some as a United States government employee, and some as a student attending the University of Maryland's overseas campus.

Also having spent time overseas in the Far East is student teacher Rafel Cons. Although he hails from Los Angeles, Cons completed his first two years of college at Oakland Junior College and received an A.A. degree. This mathematics-science major will teach algebra and a survey of science class.

George McNutt, the student teacher in the boys physical education department, finds many familiar faces at Westmoor since he was a 1957 graduate of Jefferson High School. While he was attending Jeff, Coaches Giammona, Van Alstyne and Losberger were all there and Glenn South, Westmoor's principal, was dean of boys. In addition to teaching a physical education class, McNutt will assist the varsity football coaching staff.
